13. Chubb & Son as a division of Federal is an insurance manager for various insurance companies, including companies that are or were wholly owned subsidiaries of Federal both inside and outside of the United States. Chubb & Son's services as insurance manager include, among other things, Information Technology.

14. FICO and Chubb & Son, a division of Federal, entered into a Software License and Maintenance Agreement, which they amended twice. The original agreement had an effective date of June 30, 2006. The first amendment had an effective date of August 1, 2006. The second amendment had an effective date of December 28, 2006. Copies of the original agreement and the two amendments, with pricing redacted, (collectively, the “Agreement”) are part of the Court Record and are incorporated by reference. See [Doc. 1-2].

15. Under the Agreement, Chubb & Son is the Client. The Agreement grants Chubb & Son a perpetual, non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited license to use FICO Blaze Advisor products and related maintenance services (collectively, the “FICO Products”) for internal business purposes under defined terms and conditions.

Breach of the non-assignment provision, paragraph 10.8 of the Agreement

16. Prior to January 15, 2016, Federal’s parent corporation was Chubb Corporation. Effective January 15, 2016, in accordance with the terms of an agreement and plan of merger among Chubb Corporation, Ace Limited, and a merger entity, Chubb Corporation merged with and into ACE INA Holdings, Inc., with ACE INA Holdings, Inc. surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of Chubb Limited. (ACE Limited before the merger.) As a result, Federal’s former parent corporation ceased to exist, and Federal is now a subsidiary of ACE INA Holdings, Inc.

17. Paragraph 10.8 of the Agreement prohibits the assignment or transfer of the Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party. Under the Agreement, change of control, merger, and acquisition are deemed to be an assignment or transfer. In addition, the Agreement expressly prohibits any expanded use of the FICO Products as a result of assignments or transfers unless FICO first gives its written consent.

18. The merger, described generally above, resulted in an acquisition and a change in control of Federal. Federal, through its division Chubb & Son, continued to use the FICO Products despite the fact it did not receive FICO’s written consent. Federal breached the non-assignment provision of the Agreement.

19. Paragraph 9.2(a) of the Agreement entitled FICO to terminate the Agreement within 30 days of Federal's receipt of written notice of a material breach, in the event it failed to cure as demanded.

20. On January 27, 2016, FICO provided written notice to Federal that it was in breach of the non-assignment provision of paragraph 10.8 of the Agreement.

21. On March 30, 2016, after Federal refused to cure the breach, FICO gave written notice that the Agreement would be terminated effective March 31, 2016, as allowed by paragraph 9.2 of the Agreement.

22. On March 31, 2016, the Agreement terminated. The continued unlicensed use of the FICO Products damages FICO.

23. Expanded use of the FICO Products following the merger and before termination, in breach of paragraph 10.8 of the Agreement, has caused FICO to lose licensing revenues.

Breach of the prohibition against disclosing FICO Products to third parties or permitting use of or access to FICO Products by third parties, paragraph 3.1 of the license granted by the Agreement

24. Federal or its division Chubb & Son has disclosed the FICO Products to third parties, including at least third parties located in the United Kingdom, Canada, and Australia, and has permitted these third parties access to and use of the FICO Products. These third parties include Chubb Insurance Company of Europe SE; Chubb Insurance Company of Canada and a consultant AppCentrica; and Chubb Insurance Company of Australia Limited and a consultant DWS Group.

25. Paragraph 3.1 of the license granted by the Agreement, entitled "License Restrictions," restricts Chubb & Son's use of the FICO Products to its internal business operations and the internal business operations of its Affiliates, if any, within the scope of the license. “Affiliates” is defined in Amendment Two to mean “any other entity directly or indirectly controlled by Client [Chubb & Son], where ‘control’ means ownership of more than 50% of the aggregate of all voting interests … in the entity.” Paragraph 3.1 further restricts the disclosure, use, or access of FICO Products to the employees of Chubb & Son.

26. The third-party entities to which Federal or its division Chubb & Son disclosed the FICO Products and to which it permitted access to and use of the FICO Products are not “Affiliates” of Chubb & Son within the meaning of the license granted by the Agreement.

27. Federal breached the license granted by the Agreement by the disclosure of the FICO Products to third parties and by permitting them access to and use of the FICO Products.

28. Paragraph 9.2(c) of the Agreement entitled FICO to terminate the Agreement immediately, without prior notice or a cure period, in the event of breach of any terms of the license granted in the Agreement.

29. The disclosure of the FICO Products to third parties and permitting them access to and use of the FICO Products entitled FICO to terminate the Agreement without prior notice or a cure period.

30. Federal’s breach of paragraph 3.1 of the license granted by the Agreement has caused FICO to lose the licensing revenues that third parties should have paid to use the FICO Products.

Breach of post-termination obligations, paragraph 9.3 of the Agreement

31. Under paragraph 9.3 of the Agreement, Chubb & Son was obligated to immediately cease use of all FICO Products and related documentation, including all intellectual property arising from or relating to the FICO Products and related documentation. Chubb & Son was also obligated to remove all copies of the FICO Products and related documentation from its computers and systems and either destroy or return all copies of the FICO Products, related documentation, and any other FICO intellectual property in its possession to FICO.

32. Chubb & Son continued to use the FICO Products. It neither removed all copies of the FICO Products from its computers and systems, nor destroyed or returned all copies of the FICO Products.

33. Chubb & Son did not certify its removal of the FICO Products from its computers and systems, and its continued use of the FICO Products following termination constituted further violations of the Agreement.

34. Federal's unauthorized post-termination use of the FICO Products through its division Chubb & Son, in breach of paragraph 9.3 of the Agreement, has deprived FICO of licensing revenues.

Copyright infringement by ACE American for the benefit of itself, Federal, and Federal's wholly owned subsidiaries

35. Chubb Limited, indirect parent of Federal following the acquisition and change of control described in paragraph 16 above, is the Swiss-incorporated holding company of the Chubb Group of Companies. The Chubb Group of Companies, being direct and indirect subsidiaries of Chubb Limited, are a global insurance and reinsurance organization.

36. Federal and ACE American are sister companies in the Chubb Group of Companies; both are indirect wholly owned subsidiaries of Chubb Limited.

42. ACE American is an unlicensed user of the FICO Products that were the subject of the now terminated Agreement between Chubb & Son, a division of Federal, and FICO. That now terminated Agreement by paragraph 2.1 limited the license grant to use the FICO Products to the internal business purposes of Chubb & Son, and that Agreement by paragraph 3.1 further restricted use of the FICO Products to employees of Chubb & Son.
